THE GOSPEL ADVOCATE is the oldest living periodical published in the interest of the church of Christ. It is now in its forty-ninth volume, and it has a larger list of regular, paid-up subscribers than it has ever had before. Its circulation is increasing rapidly, and it is daily growing in favor with the people. It contains sixteen large pages, and it is issued ever week. It is printed in large, clear type, on good paper, and is neatly pasted and trimmed. It has by far the largest circulation of any periodical published south of the Mason and Dixon's Line in the interest of the church of Christ. It employs four regular editorial writers, besides a large number of able and regular contributors. It has all of the regular departments of the best religious periodicals.

In editorial policy it stands for individual consecration, against ecclesiastic organizations, as the scriptural and best method of doing missionary work. It recognizes no organization but the church of Christ as a scriptural medium of converting the world and developing the Christian character.

It opposes all human creeds and ecclesiastic councils, and pleads for the right of each individual to study the Scriptures for himself, and formulate his own faith, without dictation or hindrance from churchly dignitaries. It opposes all clerical assumption of official authority in the church, and stands for the scriptural doctrine that each Christian has an office to fill, a work to perform—that all are kings and priests unto God.

It stoutly advocates the doctrine of missions, and argues unceasingly that every Christian is a divinely commissioned missionary and every church a scripturally organized missionary society. The mission of every Christian and the design of every church is to preach the gospel to all the world.

It believes in, and stoutly advocates, congregational singing, as opposed to select choirs and instrumental performances, as the best and most soul-stirring church music. Let all the people sing. Provide a book for everybody in the house, and let us all make a joyful noise unto the Lord.

Subscription price, one year, $1.50; six months, 75 cents (payable in advance). Sample copies mailed free to any address.
